Analytic Data. We automatically collect the following information concerning the use of the Amplify.ai Offerings ("Analytic Data").

- Site. Our servers automatically record certain information about how a person uses and interacts with the Site ("Log Data"), including both Account holders and non-Account holders who interact with our Site (including as to Account holders, the administrative interface to our Services). Log Data may include information such as a Internet Protocol (IP) address and network status, application identifier, browser type, operating system, the pages or features of our Site or the administrative interface to our Services to which an individual browsed and the time spent on those pages or features, frequency with which the Services are used by an individual, search terms, the links on our Services that an individual has clicked on, Surrounding Services information (as described below) and other statistics.
- Cookies and Tracking Pixels. On our website or activities related to marketing our services, we enable the collection certain information through the use of "cookies," which are small text files that are saved by your browser when you access our Services and tracking pixels, which are small graphic images embedded in web pages or e-mails or messages, to track views, actions and other performance statistics. These may include both session cookies (deleted when you log off from the Services and close your browser) and persistent cookies. Although most browsers automatically accept cookies, you can change your browser options to stop automatically accepting cookies (either all cookies, or only "third party cookies" from a web domain other than the one currently in your browser) or to prompt you before accepting cookies. Please note, however, that if you don't accept cookies, you may not be able to access all portions or features of the Services. If you choose not to receive tracking pixels in your emails, you will need to disable HTML images in your email program, but that may affect images in other emails you receive.
- Third Party Analytics. We may also use analytics technologies from third parties such as Google Analytics. (For Google's privacy practices see www.google.com/analytics/learn/privacy.html and to opt out of data recording and analysis by Google Analytics on our Sites, see <https://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout>.)

HOW DO WE USE YOUR INFORMATION? We

use the information collected through our Services to provide, improve, and promote our Services. Uses include the following. • To monitor, research, analyze and report on the usage of the Services, including with respect to user experiences and sentiment; • To personalize and enhance the Services by (among other things) expanding and customizing content, advertisements, features and functionality to users' needs and interests; • To administer and operate the Services and our business, including providing any Services you have requested, and to process transactions relating to the use of the Services; • To provide the Services on behalf of our customers; • To respond to your communications, provide customer service, and otherwise to contact you with administrative communications, newsletters, marketing or promotional materials and other information that may be of interest to you. If you decide at any time that you no longer wish to receive certain communications from us, please follow the opt-out procedure described below; and • To enforce or exercise any rights in our terms and conditions and enforce compliance with laws and law enforcement.

WHAT INFORMATION DO WE SHARE WITH THIRD PARTIES? We will not share any personal data that we have collected from you except as described below: Information collected on behalf of our customers As part of the Service delivered to the Amplify.ai Customers, we collect certain personal data described above, including, without limitation, personal data regarding the identity of each Amplify.ai Customer's end users (such as name, address, phone number, email and IP address) as well as other personal data identifiable to such users (such as online activity, purchases made, or services used). We may also collect and process Surrounding Services information as part of the Services, as described below. All information is made available to and shared with the Amplify.ai Customer for which we are providing the Services. Such information may also be shared with third parties, if and as we are directed to do so from time to time by the relevant Amplify.ai Customer. We may also share Analytic Data and non-identifiable information with Amplify.ai Customers more generally, or with third parties if and as directed by the relevant Amplify.ai Customer.

Information provided to Surrounding Services Our Services operate within third-party messenger and social networking services such as Facebook, WeChat, Twitter, Android Messages or Apple's iMessage ("Surrounding Services"), and we typically interact with Amplify.ai Customers' users as identified by the account identifiers they use for the relevant Surrounding Service. This means that we automatically access certain personal data, such as user name and gender and other personal data that user privacy settings on the Surrounding Service account permit us to access. We don't receive or store passwords for any Surrounding Services accounts. Further, you should be aware that any information shared during an interaction with our Services is visible to, and may be collected by, the relevant Surrounding Service(s). This privacy policy does not apply to any information collected by the Surrounding Services, so we recommend that users refer to the Surrounding Services' privacy policies with respect to any information collected by or visible to the Surrounding Service. We are not responsible for the privacy policies or actions of the Surrounding Services.

Information shared in connection with advertising We may share certain personal data with our advertising partners and contractors as described below under "What information do we collect, use and disclose for advertising?"

Information shared with our service providers We may engage third party service providers to work with us to administer and provide the Services. These third-party services providers have access to your personal data only for the purpose of performing services on our behalf and are expressly obligated not to disclose or use your personal data for any other purpose.

Information shared with other third parties We may share aggregated information and non-identifiable information with third parties for industry analysis, demographic profiling and other similar purposes. Information disclosed in connection with our business transactions Information that we collect from our users, including personal data, is considered to be a business asset. As a result, if we go out of business or enter bankruptcy or if we are acquired as a result of a transaction such as a merger, acquisition or asset sale, your personal data may be disclosed or transferred to the third-party acquirer in connection with the transaction. Information disclosed for our protection and the protection of others It is our policy to protect you from having your privacy violated through abuse of the legal systems, whether by individuals, entities or government, and to contest claims that we believe to be invalid under applicable law. However, it is also our policy to cooperate with government and law enforcement officials and private parties. Accordingly, we reserve the right to disclose any information about you to government or law enforcement officials or private parties as we believe necessary: (i) to satisfy or comply with any applicable law, regulation or legal process or to respond to lawful requests, including subpoenas, warrants or court orders; (ii) to enforce our agreements with you or third parties, to protect our property, rights and safety and the rights, property and safety of third parties or the public in general; and (iii) to prevent or stop activity we consider to be illegal or unethical. Information we disclose with your consent or at your request We will share your personal data with third-party sites or platforms, such as social networking sites, if you have expressly requested that we do so. WHAT INFORMATION DO WE COLLECT, USE AND DISCLOSE FOR ADVERTISING? We may use and disclose collected personal data as described above for purposes of providing services such as advertising, either directly or through our partners and contractors. We may employ third party ad serving technologies that use certain methods to collect information as a result of ad serving through Services. Amplify.ai or third parties operating the Amplify.ai Offerings may use the personal data, including unique IDs for Surrounding Services, demographic and geolocation information (as described above), information concerning your interests and sentiments derived from your interactions with the Service as well as information logged from your device to ensure that relevant and personalized content is presented within the Service. The foregoing personal data may be used and disclosed in accordance with this Privacy Policy and the privacy policy of the company providing the ad serving technology. Though the use of services enabled by Amplify.ai, you may see behaviorally targeted advertising. If you wish to do not wish to have your personal data used to provide you with targeted advertising, you have several choices: • Reset your mobile device's advertising identifier or set it to opt out of targeted advertising. o Android: You can reset your advertising ID at any time, right from the Ads section of the Google Settings app on your device. From the same app, you can also opt-out of targeted advertising based on the advertising ID by setting the appropriate ad tracking preference. o iOS: You may opt-out by electing Limit Ad Tracking in your device's settings menu (as of the date of this Privacy Policy, located at Settings > Privacy > Advertising). . Also, you should be aware that if you stop the use of your personal data to show you targeted advertising it does not mean that you will no longer receive advertising. It just means that the advertising you see displayed will not be customized to you and your interests and may be less relevant to you. Finally, please note that Amplify.ai Customers may serve you advertising within our Services or request that we serve you advertising within our Services. Similarly, you may see advertising delivered by by Surrounding Services, or by third party applications or websites in which the Services appear, or to which content in the Services may link As indicated above, we do not control the use of personal data or other information that anyone except us may collect when you use our Services to interact with them. Amplify.ai Customers, Surrounding Services, and other third parties may use personal data you share with them or collect elsewhere for advertising purposes, and the procedures above may not be effective with respect to advertising served within our Service by or on behalf of Amplify.ai Customers, Surrounding Services, or those other third parties. DO NOT TRACK Our Site honors the Do Not Track setting in your browser, and where the Surrounding Service permits our Services to honor the Do Not Track setting in your browser, we will do so. Where the Surrounding Service does not permit our Services to honor the Do Not Track setting in your browser, we will not do so. However, third party service providers we have engaged may use cookies to collect your personal information or online activities over time and across different web sites, and we are not always informed about their policy toward Do Not Track mechanisms. For more information regarding Do Not Track mechanisms, see <http://allaboutdnt.com/>. THE SECURITY OF YOUR INFORMATION We take reasonable measures to protect the information that we collect from or about you (including your personal data) from unauthorized access, corruption, use or disclosure.
